Plowing Through Land Records to Find Your Ancestor

Our Speaker: Kelvin L. Meyers ,a professional genealogist for the last twenty two years, and an avid researcher-historian for the last thirty three years, brings a great knowledge of social sciences, history, genealogy, and some PI techniques to his work. He is a frequent speaker to many genealogical societies and family associations in Texas and Oklahoma. The Dallas Public Library employed him for ten years in the Genealogy Department. Now, he contracts with law firms, banks, the US Immigration Service and heir searching companies, as a forensic genealogist, searching for missing or unknown heirs to estates and to oil and gas leases. In January of 2007 he was appointed Chairman of the Archives and History Committee of First United Methodist Church, Dallas, Texas. Kelvin has been a guest lecturer at the Institute of Genealogical and Historical Research at Samford University for the past two years.
